

EMMAUS COLLEGE MINISTRY SKI TRIP

December 27, 2010 – December 31, 2010 (Monday-Friday)

“So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.”
1 Corinthians 10:31

//DESTINATION

_Our ski trip will be in Red River, New Mexico, approximately nine short hours from Oklahoma City. During our stay, we will be lodging at the Ski View Condominiums at the base of the mountain. For more information about Red River or the condominiums, go to www.redriverskiarea.com to check out their website.

//TRANSPORTATION

_We will be taking two church vans and a trailer on our 540 mile trek to and from Red River. Father and son duo Brad and Brandon Laib, who are licensed to drive automobiles, will be driving the vans.

//MEALS

_All meals in Red River will be coordinated through chefs Brad and Susan Laib. Part of your registration money pays for these meals.

- Breakfast and dinner will be provided at the condos.
- Lunch will be sandwiches or other catered food at the ski slopes.

//SPENDINGMONEY

_Each person will be responsible for six traveling meals. Three meals on the way to Red River, one meal in Red River, and two meals on the way back home. $50-$70 of spending money will be sufficient. In addition, there are several souvenir shops, fudge stores, etc. in Red River, so you may bring as much spending money as you want for that.

//CLOTHING

_Obviously, we first want our clothes to be honoring of Christ; therefore, all clothing must be modest in nature. While skiing and snowmobiling, the following articles of clothing are highly recommended:

HEAD

- Hat (should cover your ears as well as your head)
- Goggles
- Scarf

TORSO

- Cotton/Polyester blend t-shirt (wicking shirt)
- Fleece jacket
- Shell jacket
- Gloves (insulated, not cloth)

LEGS

- Thermal undies
- Snow pants
- Wool socks (it's a good idea to wear two pairs at a time)
- Snow boots (for snowmobiling and sledding)

//COST

_ We have tried our best to make this trip inexpensive so many people are able to come, but we have also tried to help cover the expenses of our trip as well (lodging, transportation, food, etc...). The rest of your registration ($100) is due by December 1st.

Registration	$100 (due Oct. 17 th)	$100 (due Dec. 1 st)
